2016-17

IQAC of our college organises the orientation program for the I B.A. and B.COM students every year to give all the information about the college. What suited the past or suits the present will not necessarily suit the future. Students should receive an education positively oriented towards perpetual social reform.

The commissioner of collegiate education initiated the Total Quality Management interventions for territory education with an intention to assure quality to different stake holders. To fulfil these requirements based on the guidelines our institution conducts orientation programme for I B.A and B.Com students. The most difficult thing for a new student is to orient herself to the realities of the curriculum as well as institution. Hence conducting this programme has become the tradition of our college and it is unique and special of its kind.

In this year the programme was arranged on 20-07-2016 at 12-30 A.M. The program was commenced by the invocation song by Kum. Shreevidya.M. II B.Com. Kum. Nagaratna.G.P. III B.Com. welcomed the gathering. In this programme all the Departmental Heads provided the information regarding the physical facilities available and conveners of different committees gave the information about co-curricular and extra-curricular activities to be conducted in the college. The office staff also provided the information about admission, fee structure, scholarships and examination process.

We have invited Shri. Prashantkumar.Asso Prof, Bapuji -MBA College, Davangere and Shri.R.R.Kantharaj, Director, PSS(R) , Harihar. Prashantkumar sir addressed the students about the personality development by conducting various activities to the students. Shri .R.R. Kantharaj sir addressed the students about implementation about GST and its future consequences.

In the middle we honoured the Top Five students who have secured Highest Marks in the previous semester examinations. During the programme few senior students shared their experience. And some of the freshers also shared their views about the college. Finally the Principal in his presidential speech covered other information regarding rules, regulations and discipline of the college and also expressed that from the views of the senior and fresher students, we came to know that the orientation programme increased the confidence level of the students and affection towards our college. At last the programme was concluded by vote of thanks by Kum. Pooja.D.B. III B.A.
